“The Saturn & Pluto Conjunction” with Judith Robert, Ph.D.

In mid-January 2020 transiting Saturn catches up with transiting Pluto in the middle of the zodiacal sign of Capricorn. Saturn strives to create plans and goals to give form to new structures. Pluto tears down worn out structures in its desire to enable the expression of life's essential nature. When these planets come together the struggle to hold on to goals and structures one has built comes into confrontation with the desire to tear down and start over again. This class will discuss how these energies are manifesting in our society and our lives based on our natal chart. Please RSVP to Judith at JudithARobert@gmail.com. Please let Judith know if you are okay with having your chart discussed in class. Please send birth data if you have not participated in my class before.
